

To the FCC:

Mr. Powell's decision to allow increased concentration of ownership in print and broadcast media disgusts me. His lame justification for somehow preserving access would be laughable if not so obviously serving the interests of wealthy and powerful media interests. This decision only strengthens my determination to do all in my power to expell the greedy and unprincipled Republican corporate lap dogs from power in the next election.

Good bye Mr. Powell and your corporate cronies.